'VERSITY OF CALIFORNIA,
ANGELES
.ic Policy and Communications Studies

The Department of Political Science and the Program in Communication Studies invite nominations and applications for a joint position in Public Policy and Communication Studies. Candidates must have teaching and research interests in the policy process with a distinct emphasis on communications-related issues. Rank is open, but there is some preference for junior candidates. Dossiers, to include a c.v., list of references, evidence of teaching performance, and sample publications, should be directed to:

Ms. Beverly Mitchell, Secretary
Public Policy/Communication Studies
Search Committee
(Chair, Prof. Shanto Iyengar)
Department of Political Science
University of California, Los Angeles
Los Angeles, CA 90024-1472

To assure full consideration, applications should be received no later than November 15, 1990.

The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and particularly welcomes the candidacies of minorities and women.
